It Was Loaded.

PETERSBURG, October 13.—Intelligence is just received here of the shooting and killing of Henry Jones by his brother Thomas, in Mickenburg, this state. The parties were playing with a shot gun when, Thomas who had the gun in his hand, leveled it at Henry, remarking at the time look out I am going to shoot. The words were hardly said before the weapon was discharged and Henry fell a corpse at his brother's feet with his brains blown out. An inquest was held when the jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The supreme court of the United States reassembled at noon to-day with a full bench and a large attendance at the bar. A few attorneys were admitted to practice, but no other business was transacted.

THE LAND OF THE PYRAMIDS.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The government, through Colonel Ketchner, has received news from Debbah which, if correct, proves that Colonel Stewart is alive. The messenger who returned to Colonel Ketchner at Waddy Halla on Friday says the steamer that ran upon the rocks at Waddy Gama, the crew of which were massacred by Arabs, was commanded by M. Nicola, the Greek consul. It is believed if Colonel Stewart had been on board the steamer he would have been in command.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK BANK.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 13.—The United States grand jury has just made presentment against the New Brunswick national bank of New Jersey. The jury made a full investigation in which it was discovered that the loss was more than the whole surplus of the bank, and was caused, before last June, by fraud of the cashier with the possible connivance of the president, but no other officials.

BOLD ROBBERIES.

GALENA, Ills., Oct. 13.—Burglars night before last made a raid on the stores of Hughes & Rundel, A. T. Rowley and John Allen at Livingston, on the Chicago and Northwestern railway. Ohio to-day. Chairman Gilbert H. Barger, of the democratic committee, says "the state is all right." Dudley expresses equal confidence for the republicans, but neither party will predict a majority. The republicans are not letting on Ohio.

THE MINES STILL BURNING.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 13.—There is no change of consequence in the situation in the valley to-day. The mine at Sanddown which was burning has been banked and closed with the hopes of smothering the fire. At Straitsville the mines are still afire, and engines have been called from Logan, Lancaster and Columbus. They commenced operations with the engines and hose at 10 o'clock this morning and expected to have some effect on the blaze before night. There are no demonstrations among the miners who claim the operation did the firing and the operators say they have no doubt but that the striking miners did the work.

POLITICAL MEETINGS.

As Seen From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The prostitution of the pension department in the furtherance of Blaine's interests in Ohio and Indiana is shameful beyond precedent. Commissioner Dudley's absence in Ohio with a gang of pension examiners and other officials has left the bureau without a head and with diminished force. The regular work of the office is neglected and it is learned that under Dudley's orders, such of the employees as cannot be of service in Ohio and are consequently allowed to remain here, are largely engaged upon applications for pensions filed by citizens of Ohio, Indiana and one or two other states where Blaine needs help. It is expected that by thus advancing claims coming from these states and passing upon them out of their regular order, the votes of claimants will be secured for the republican ticket. This policy is to be continued until November. In the meantime claimants from other states will be compelled to wait. The scandalous conduct of Dudley in this matter will, beyond question, be a subject of investigation immediately upon the reassembling of congress.

A VIRGINIAN'S VIEW.

Congressman Barbour, of Virginia, chairman of the Virginia democratic committee, and a member of the democratic national committee, passed through the city to-day on his way from New York, where he has been spending several days, chiefly at democratic headquarters. GOVERNOR CLEVELAND.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Governor Cleveland will leave Albany early Wednesday, arriving in New York at 10:30. While in New York, he will probably hold a consultation with the democratic leaders and managers. He will go to Brooklyn Thursday to attend a democratic barbecue, returning to Albany Thursday night.

BOLEING BLAINE.

The following letter has been received by Lucius B. Swift, chairman of the independent republican central committee of Indiana, signed by a number of very respectable citizens of Lafayette—all German-Americans and gentlemen of high standing, and several of solid wealth—which fully explains itself:

LAFAYETTE, IND., Oct. 2, 1884.

Lucius B. Swift, chairman independent republican committee of Indiana, Indianapolis, Ind.:

DEAR SIR—The undersigned independent republicans of Lafayette, who believe the true interests of all people will be best promoted by the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, respectfully ask the committee, of which you are chairman, to co-operate with them in securing Hon. Carl Schurz to deliver an address in this city, on the political issues of the day, at such time as may suit his convenience.

Best assured that should Mr. Schurz accept our invitation he will be accorded an ovation such as his career as a statesman, his real integrity and life long devotion to the cause of the people so eminently entitle him. Very respectfully, P. J. Welschbell, George A. Bohrer, John Newman, Paul Phares, Louis Krause, Fred Hennig, Jacob Blank, John G. Helmkamp, Henry Fries, Constantine Dodd, Charles J. Bohrer, Charles Russ, Emil Wendling, Elias Schuessler, Joseph Schneider, Jacob Kessner, Joseph Ritter, Carl Rinkhoff, Charles Reuter, Jacob D. Kurts, Jr., Joseph Trageser, Nicholas Praas, Jr., Fred Schurman, William Beck, Anton Miller, William Gerke, Charles Ulrich.

TENDRICKS CROSSING BLAINE'S PATH.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 13.—Mr. Blaine left Lancaster at a little after 9 o'clock for Toledo, via Columbus. Just as he started, the train going down the Hocking Valley carrying Mr. Hendricks, the democratic candidate for vice president, arrived at Lancaster. The crowd at the depot cheered Mr. Hendricks when he appeared on the rear platform. He returned thanks in a very brief speech, in the course of which he said:

"If Ohio to-morrow shall support the democratic cause the fight is over, but if Ohio to-morrow shall not do that then in Indiana and in the other states the fight is to the death."

At Columbus ex-Governor Foster, chairman Aglove, of the republican state committee, and ex-Commissioner Dudley boarded Mr. Blaine's car. There was a stop here of over an hour but the car was left on the outskirts, of the city and did not go into the depot at all.

ALWAYS AT WORK.

ALBANY, Oct. 13.—Governor Cleveland is busy to-day clearing up his work preparatory to his trip to New York and Brooklyn Wednesday.

He will probably be accompanied only by his private secretary, Daniel S. Landut, leaving on the regular train which arrives at New York at 10:30 a. m. His headquarters will be the Fifth Avenue Hotel where he will remain Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The Emma Abbott opera company will open for a week at Chicago, October 20, with "King for a Day," followed with "Heart and Hand," Rossini's "Semiramide," given now for the first time in English, "Faust," "Mignon," "Trovatore," "Martha," "Maritima," and "Bohemian Girl." Already this season Miss Abbott has inaugurated two opera houses, and immediately after the Chicago season will open two more, being the beautiful theatres now building in Washington and Fort Wayne. Miss Abbott seems to be as much of a "Mascot" for new houses as has been for herself.

Sol. D. Bayless lodge convenes to-night.

Deputy Marshall Brandt picked up a key which the loser can have.

Miss Annie Bourie has returned from Washington, where she was the guest of her sister.

James G. Blaine has engaged rooms for himself and son Walter at the Avenue house for October 20 and 21.

The fall in Wabash freight business cuts time in the shops, notwithstanding each department is crowded with work.

The Chautauque Literary and Scientific circle meets this evening in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church.

At the session of the Indiana Presbyterian synod at New Albany Saturday, Rev. W. H. McFarland, of Fort Wayne, was one of the secretaries.

The Philadelphia correspondent of Byrne's Dramatic Times says that Frank Nirdlinger, formerly of Fort Wayne, goes out on the road with the Bistoni company as treasurer.

After the race at the fair grounds Saturday a pretty wreath of flowers were hung about the neck of Will McKinzie's pacing horse, "Billy F." The dainty steed seemed to appreciate the gift of his fair admirers.

A few country stereotyped papers publish the silly story that a member of the Jeffersonian club took off his badge when he heard the Calhoun-Gray joint debate. There is no more foundation for that story than that Blaine is to be taken off the ticket.

Among the alleged "railroaders" who carried lanterns in the republican procession Saturday night was Allen Dowgal, the revenue collector, and T. Demosthenes Weaver, the colored white washer. This dyspeptic attempt to impersonate train men is laughed at by the railroad boys.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Clearing and fair weather, winds shifting to northerly, fresh and brisk in form, lower temperature and higher barometer. Cool and clear weather Tuesday in Ohio.

Jakie Siebold and Harry Metzger were at Van Wert Saturday night. These gay youths take a splendid delight in shattering the hearts of susceptible Ohio belles, but when Mr. Siebold's sweetheart coaxed him to wait just a minute longer her victory was complete. The train did not wait and just how the young druggist got home is not known.

Major Calkins was quite ill at the Dunham house, Indianapolis, last night, and a physician was with him for several hours. He was threatened with a congestive chill, but at a late hour was considered out of danger. Owing to his illness he did not leave for Lafayette till 12:10 to-day, the original intention being to start at 7 o'clock. He reached Lafayette a few minutes late, but Colonel Gray consented to await his coming or even postpone the discussion until another day should Calkins not be well enough to speak. It was not anticipated that Major Calkins would take the joint discussion doses so hard.

A bloody Railroad War on Hand.

The outcome of the notice given by the Pennsylvania that it will not allow Baltimore and Ohio passengers over its road between Baltimore and New York after October 12, has been the withdrawal of the Baltimore and Ohio road from the passenger pools, and the obtaining of an order restraining the Pennsylvania company from interfering with the existing management. It is expected that the Baltimore and Ohio in retaliation, if forced from its New York line, will inaugurate a "bloody" and destructive war on rates, passenger and freight and conquer a place, as it were, this way, or ruin this year's profits of all its competitors. Vanderbilt and Gould have joined the Baltimore and Ohio road out of New York.

A Little Matinee at the Fair Ground.

There was quite a large assemblage at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon to look at the speed of local horses of celebrity. The first was a race between O. A. Simons' "Daisy Scott" and Will McKinzie's "Billy F." Vanastine drove "Daisy Scott" and Wallace drove "Billy F." "Daisy Scott" got off nicely, but "Billy F." acted badly. He caught himself on the last quarter and followed the mare under the wire in 2:27. In the two succeeding heats, "Daisy Scott" did admirable work, but "Billy F." would catch himself and push her mighty hard for front. He caught her once, but both animals broke and "Daisy" settled down first. She won the second and third heats in 2:26 and 2:31, with "Billy F." uncomfortably close. The mare won $100 and a number of side bets.

There was another race between "Judge Hendry" and "Snowflake." The "Judge" easily won the two first heats and in the third Henry G. Oble took a hand. His horse "Henry G." won the last heat. The running horses of Dr. J. M. Dimmen and George Swayne were matched for a half mile dash and Maine Heard From!

The Maine question is now answered as to the most durable shoe for children.

The "Little ones" take about twenty steps to an adult one. It is no surprise that the restless feet soon kick their way out.

Parents are in constant trouble about how to keep their children's feet neatly clad, unless they belong to the happy throng who turn these cares over to W. H. Fleming who always carries a large stock in a specialty for children that is neat, and very durable, in button or lace, light or heavy, heel or no heel.
